From the President's Desk

It's been a busy time for me getting ready for the Holiday Season. In my business, work seems to come my way in spurts or waves, and for this season the wave is on a high. So I have been busy with work, busy getting ready for family to visit and getting ready to celebrate this wonderful Holiday Season. I hope that whatever your plans are for this Holiday Season that you all will have a wonderful joyous time and look forward to a great New Year.

This is also a time of year when we reflect on our experiences of the year past as we get ready to usher in the New Year. As I reflect on my experiences of this last year with all of you I am mindful of meeting and socializing with some wonderful new friends, and still sharing great times with many of our tried and true members. I remember feeling some loneliness during our summer period when so many of our members depart for their vacations and travels, and very much looking forward to seeing them again when they return to us in the fall. I feel that we have a great group of friends and would very much miss T.U.G. and the support I feel from the group, if I could not continue to be a part of it. So to all, I wish you a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah, Happy New Year, Happy Holidays, and all the best, until we see each other again.

Please remember we are celebrating our annual Holiday Party next month at our January 9th chapter meeting. We are planning a scrumptious pot luck meal, so please volunteer to share with us some of your favorite mouth watering holiday dishes, and if you wish to participate in our traditional holiday gift exchange, plan on bringing an appropriate wrapped gift for the exchange. We don't want this gift exchange to be a financial burden on any of us, so please limit your gift purchases to a maximum of $20.00.

Can you read these right the first time?

- 1) The bandage was wound around the wound.
- 2) The farm was used to produce produce.
- 3) The dump was so full that it had to refuse more refuse.
- 4) We must polish the Polish furniture.
- 5) He could lead if he would get the lead out.
- 6) The soldier decided to desert his dessert in the desert.
- 7) Since there is no time like the present, he thought it was time to present the present .
- 8) A bass was painted on the head of the bass drum.
- 9) When shot at, the dove dove into the bushes.
- 10) I did not object to the object.
- 11) The insurance was invalid for the invalid.
- 12) There was a row among the oarsmen about how to row .
- 13) They were too close to the door to close it.
- 14) The buck does funny things when the does are present.
- 15) A seamstress and a sewer fell down into a sewer line.
- 16) To help with planting, the farmer taught his sow to sow.
- 17) The wind was too strong to wind the sail.
- 18) Upon seeing the tear in the painting I shed a tear.
- 19) I had to subject the subject to a series of tests.
- 20) How can I intimate this to my most intimate friend?

Let's face it - English is a crazy language.

There is no egg in eggplant, nor ham in hamburger; neither apple nor pine in pineapple.

English muffins weren't invented in England or French fries in France .

Sweetmeats are candies while sweetbreads, which aren't sweet, are meat.

We take English for granted. But if we explore its paradoxes, we find that quicksand can work slowly, boxing rings are square and a guinea pig is neither from Guinea nor is it a pig.

Anyone who has never made a mistake has never tried anything new. -- Albert Einstein
